by Louvolite®

Our woven wood blind collection features natural woods and bamboos that filter the light into your room, creating a calm, soothing ambience that can be easily adjusted as the climate changes.

Our luxurious range of woods and bamboos has been specially selected from sustainable forests around the world.

A full range of braids and accessories are available to personalise your blind and create your own individual look.

embrace nature

Whether your room has wood laminate flooring or furnishings with a natural finish, a woven wood blind brings harmonious textures and tones as nature intended.

Choose either woven wood roman or panel blinds and you will create the focal point of your interior desires.

inspired by nature

Woven wood blinds can be custom made to satisfy any style and shape of window.

The roman style of woven wood blinds has been especially designed for conservatory roofs and shaped windows.

For any other windows in your home, woven wood blinds are available as both roman and panel blinds.

Ideally suited for conservatories, woven wood roman blinds gently filter daylight into your room creating a natural ambience throughout the changing seasons.
